

Blast

Killawat

I slashed and burned through my 15 minutes of fame
And now it's time for me to extinguish the flame
But that's alright cause I wouldn't have it any other way I had a blast
I had a blast On an ounce of talent (?) my (?) into the ground
And then I stood and watched as the others wore the crown
But that's alright cause I wouldn't have it any other way I had a blast
I had a blast I had a blast
I had a blast
I had a blast
