A Wayfarer's Tears

Go, where was God when I needed a friend?
Where was God when I came to an end?
Where was God when I lost my mind?
Where was God when I could not find?
Don't want to be up or down
Don't want to be up or down
Don't want to be up or down
I don't want to be up or down
Where was love when I felt like hate?
Where was hate when I felt like love?
Where were you when you said, you'd be there?
Where was the fear when I said, I was scared?
I don't want to be up or down
Don't want to be up or down
I don't want to be up or down
I don't want to be up or down
Why tell me what you believe?
I'll tell you what you should see
I don't know who to trust
My heart is filled with disgust

I can't take this now
Tell me what you believe?
I'll tell you what you should see
I don't know who to trust
My heart is filled with disgust
Tell me what you believe?
Tell me what you should see?
Ladies and gentlemen
May I have your attention?
Are you ready for the joke?
Are you ready for the great deception? God
Tell me what you believe?
(God)
Tell me what you believe?
(God)
Tell me what you believe?
Tell me what you believe?
Tell me what you believe?

Tell me what you believe?
