

Versus Terminus

In Flames

When all is said and done, we know what's right what's wrong
But does it matter then when all is said and done?
When all is said and done, we know who's left of one
But does it matter, then when all is dead and gone? Seeing everything go, there's no more things alive
That we know
Shift your point of view, you be warned
There's a one way ticket for you When all the lights go out, we know what that's about
But does it matter then when all the lights go out?
When all that's left is lies, there'll be nothing left to realize
But does it matter, do they know they left its lies Seeing everything go, there's no more things alive
That we know
Shift your point of view, you be warned
There's a one way ticket for you When all that's left is lies, we'll see nothing left to realize
But does it matter, do they know they left its lies Seeing everything go, there's no more things alive
That we know
Shift your point of view, you be warned
There's a one way ticket for you
