Hard Year

Jeffrey Martin

Fees like snow again
Going back home again
Driving those old roads again
I know the corners
The house looks the same as it did
Dad asked how things have been Mom calls me her long lost kin
Just like always

Itâ€™s been a hard year
I donâ€™t want to talk about it here
Itâ€™s been a long fall
But Iâ€™m climbing out
Itâ€™s been a long fall
But Iâ€™m climbing out

I take the dog for a walk
Not much has changed around here
Pass me a cigarette and talk
To an empty sky
Try not to think about
How you used to laugh out loud
And then come crashing down
Where I could hold you

Itâ€™s been a hard year
I donâ€™t want to talk about it here
Itâ€™s been a long fall
But Iâ€™m climbing out
Itâ€™s been a long fall
But Iâ€™m climbing out

You called to say
Sorry for the mess you made
You were just so angry
So angry

A wife and a mother now
Sometimes you still think about how things might have gone with you and me you know,

I guess it doesnâ€™t matter anyway

Itâ€™s been a hard year
I donâ€™t want to talk about it here
Itâ€™s been a long fall
But Iâ€™m climbing out
Itâ€™s been a long fall
But Iâ€™m climbing out
Itâ€™s been a long fall
But Iâ€™m climbing out
