

You Owe Me an IOU

Hot Hot Heat

He was in the habit of taking things for granted, granted there wasnt much for him to take and the only thing constant was the constant reminder he'd never change

Tight fisted with his compliments it didnt seem to bother him that talk he's been cheaper by the book(?)

and the only thing constant was the constant reminder he'd never change and so she yelled at him: You owe me an IOU,

owe me an IOU,

You owe me an IOU,

Dont think that i'll forget,

You owe me an IOU,

owe me an IOU,

You owe me an IOU,

Dont think that i'll forget,

I know what I should get this time She was in the habit of re-applying make up, make up

Eating up my crocodile tears

And the only thing constant was the constant reminder she'd never change

A barely individual cleverly traditional she couldnt seem to make up her mind,

And the only thing constant was the constant reminder she'd never shine,

And so he yelled at her: You owe me an IOU,

owe me an IOU,

You owe me an IOU,

Dont think that i'll forget,

You owe me an IOU,

owe me an IOU,

You owe me an IOU,

Dont think that i'll forget,

I know what I should get this time Oh, What isnt real,

I dont know,

but I have this feeling, (?)

Whats the deal,

I dont know,

but I have this feeling, (?)

heres what I think, that it is if it is,

and this might just work They were in the habit of taking things for granted granted they never quite knew what they had

And the only thing constant was the constant reminder they'd never change,

And So they yelled out loud: You owe me an IOU,

owe me an IOU,

You owe me an IOU,
Dont think that i'll forget,
You owe me an IOU,
owe me an IOU,
You owe me an IOU,
Dont think that i'll forget,
I know what I should get yeah I know what I should get this time.
