Hints

JosÃ© GonzÃ¡lez

While the crowd is waiting for the final kiss
The one which allows them to sleep well
We walk along a wrong path
The one which will lead us to a wrong place

We need hints
Before we get tired
But we need hints
Before we get tired

Now we need hints before we lose pace
We need a hint to know we're on the right track

We need hints
Before we get tired
We need hints
Before we get tired

Now we need speed before we lose pace
We need a hint to know we're on the right track
