

Crazy

Josh Damigo

From the first time that I saw her
I knew that she was his
But everybody told me differently
Cause from the way he talked about her
To that look deep in his eyes
Nowadays you don't see love like this
So when I asked if he could ask her out
His reply isn't what I thought

Are you crazy?
She'd never like a guy like me
I'm not one to rush my feelings and break a perfect thing
You're so crazy if you think that's how we'll end
Sure I love all the little things but she's just my best friend

She acted like, she never thought of him like that
But the corners of her lips screamed that's a lie
Cause from the way she talked about him to that look deep in her eyes
Nowadays you just don't see love like that
So when I asked if he could ask her out her reply wasn't what I thought

Are you crazy?
He'd never like a girl like me
I'm not one to rush my feelings and break a perfect thing
You're so crazy if you think that's how we'll end
Sure I love all the little things but he's just my best friend

For years went by just like that
Now they're dancing for you and me
Showing a love that always was hidden from everybody
But then one question left from me
Do you still think I'm crazy?

Are you crazy?
He'd never like a girl like me
I'm not one to rush my feelings and break a perfect thing
You're so crazy if you think that's how we'll end
Sure I love all the little things but he's just my best friend
