

Unforgivable (feat. Paul Wall)

Baby Bash

Why you all up in my peers
Why you still liking my peers
Why you still hatin' down cheers
You're unforgivable
Why you still talk to my friends
Askin' them how I've been Tryina find who I'm with
You're unforgivable
You left me for this man
The grass ain't always greener once you hit that other side
I guess you didn't notice that I forward all your calls
I'm sure glad that you notice what you had and what you lost Why you worry about me?
When you should worry about him
You left me cold in these streets
You're unforgivable
Why you worry about me?
When you should worry about him
You left me cold in these streets
You're unforgivable I gave you the world and all you wanted was the moon
A fairytale romance that ended too soon
When I hit my first vic, you was down to ball
But when I called you from the county, you denied my call
You left me hanging like a comma so now I'm a goner
My only regret it's introducing you to my mama
You lied to me, told me you will ride till the end
But in the end you hooked up with one of my friends
And now I'm stacking major paper in homeboy a waiter
And making d's, that's cool, I'm no hater
You textin' me emojis with a tear in your eye
But your trifling ass boppers gets no replies
Why you worry about me?
When you should worry about him
You let me cold in the streets
You're unforgivable You're so cold
You're unforgivable
But I keep trackin' on
I keep trackin' on
You're unforgivable You left me for the next man, now you waiting for reply
The grass ain't always greener once you hit that other side

I guess you didn't notice that I forward all your calls
I'm sure glad that you notice what you had and what you lost Why you worry about me?
When you should worry about him
You let me cold in the streets
You're unforgivable Why you worry about me?
When you should worry about him
You let me cold in the streets
You're unforgivable
