Daylight

Takida

Feel my heartbeat pounding through the walls
Sweaty palms and powder through your noseSober out for once
Then I see you close, you're my daylightYour name I've been calling out, calling out since then
I hope you still feel alive, feel alive like I do
Now we're breaking up into the nightYour lies cut like a knife
I lose myself while
I give you all I have
Please, bring me the light
I see you run, I walk
I treat you right
No one stands in our way
I feel you close, you're my daylightYour name I've been calling out, calling out since then
I hope you still feel alive, feel alive like I do
Now we're breaking up into the nightInto the night
Into the night
Into the night
Your name I've been calling out, calling out since then
I hope you still feel alive, feel alive like I doYour name I've been calling out, calling out since then
I hope you still feel alive, feel alive like I do
Now we're breaking up into the night
