

All Love

Cyrille Aimé©e

When I push the sheets away
From your face and watch you sleep all day here
And when I push you away
And say you simply cannot stay hereIt's all love, all love
It's all of my stupid loveWhen I say you take away
The most important parts of me with you
And when I've had the grayest day
You add more gray, that's just your way, it's trueIt's all love, all love, oh
It's all love, all love, oh
It's all love, all love, oh
It's all of my stupid loveYou can't be the one to kill the pain anymore
You let me in but then you slam my fingers in the door
I've had enough but I keep asking you to give me more
When I say that there's no wayIt's all love, all love, oh
It's all love, all love, oh
It's all love, all love, oh
It's all of my stupid loveIt's all love, all love, oh
It's all love, all love, oh
It's all love, all love, oh
It's all of my stupid love
