Fear

Gorefest

Kinda alone
With a friend called fear
Locked up in a world
That's called your lifeTalking to walls
That close in on you
Not able to run
You are frozen insideRest in your misery
Never to escape
It all has its reasons
It's all been arrangedOn from day one
Thrown onto this world
Born in sin
Being the silent oneFear, fear
Of life, of deathHiding your fantasies
Deep down inside
They're never to see
The light of dayThe scales of balance
You have in your head
Are tipped against you
The burden you bearFear of life
Fear of life
Fight, fight
For life, for prideRefuse, never crawl
Breathe, you will win
Shame, no such thing
No burden is called sinFight, fight
For life, for prideRefuse, never crawl
Breathe, you will win
Shame, no such thing
No burden is called sinHiding your fantasies
Deep down inside
They're never to see
The light of dayThe scales of balance
You have in your head
Are tipped against you
The burden you bearFear of life
Fear of life
