Make a Sound

The Reign of Kindo

Bring me a reason to cry
And I'll shed you a tear
Bring me a reason to fight
And I'll bleed for you, dear
But until then, I won't make a sound
I won't make a soundWalk through the lily fields they don't toil, they don't spin
Up above, the birds in the sky
They don't toil, I wonder why...Bring me a reason to cry
And I'll shed you a tear
Bring me a reason to fight
And I'll bleed for you, dear
But until then, I won't make a sound
I won't make a soundSoon enough we'll see the truth
Today we live until we die
Soon enough, we won't need proof
We'll sing our songs, we won't ask why
