Cocteau Twins

I'm glad you are a girl
I'm pleased to know you
I like you for you
I'm happy you're growing upReach and you won't lose me
Destroy the objective but still survive
You are angry and thats okayForgetful or pretending
Tired, ill or angry or cold
More assured of what to do
But I do care for youReach and you won't lose me
Destroy the objective but still survive
You are angry and that's okay
You are angry and that's okayI am not afraid of your anger
What do you need? What do you want?
I love you and I know that you can figure it outReach and you won't lose me
Destroy the objective but still survive
You are angry and thats okay
You are angry and that's okayI am not afraid of your anger
What do you need? What do you want?
I love you and I know that you can figure it out
I love you and I know that you can figure it outReach and you won't lose me
Destroy the objective but still survive
You are angry and thats okay
You are angry and that's okayI am not afraid of your anger
What do you need? What do you want?
I love you and I know that you can figure it out
I love you and I know that you can figure it out
