

She Gathers Rain

Collective Soul

Today she dresses for the change she's faces now
And the storm that's raging a safe haven she has found
She doesn't care what the prophets say anymore
For the love she had, she has no more So she gathers rain, yeah, she gathers rain
To rinse away all her guilt and pain
So she gathers rain, yeah, she gathers rain
To wash and cleanse and make her whole again Her imagination has started stretching wide
And her new conviction, no longer will she hide
She's not branded, when the prophets speak words of fire
The same love she gives, she requires So she gathers rain, yeah, she gathers rain
To rinse away all her guilt and pain
So she gathers rain, yeah, she gathers rain
To wash and cleanse and make her whole again For the love she had, she has no more So she gathers rain, yeah,
she gathers rain
To rinse away all her guilt and pain
So she gathers rain, yeah, she gathers rain
To wash and cleanse and make her whole again So she gathers rain, yeah, she gathers rain
To rinse away all her guilt and pain
So she gathers rain, yeah, she gathers rain
To wash and cleanse and make her whole again
