

Time of the Day

Del Shannon

They warned me,
I shouldn't love you,
They said you'd only break my heart,
Well here it is,
It's that time of the day,
The time when my heart must pay, Was it worth all the times I kissed her?
Was it worth this lonely empty heart?
Well here it is,
It's that time of the day,
The time when my heart must pay, I talk and I talk to my lonely heart,
But it just doesn't want to know,
I promised my heart the world on a string,
But now, but now I've lost everything, I look, I look all around me,
But suddenly everything is gone,
It's finally here,
It's that time of the day,
The time when my heart must pay,
