All Over Again

David Unger

There are no more chances,
I wouldnâ€™t change a thing,
You stand next to me but weâ€™re so far away,
Echoes of the past are calling out your name,

All over again;
I know that change never feels the same,
All over again,
I know Iâ€™ll always feel this way,

Iâ€™m not giving up easy,
Betcha Iâ€™ll find a way,
We can start all over,
We can start all over again,

And I know that this is the reason,
That life could never be the same,
Yeah...
We can start all over...
All over again,

I still remember,
Touching your skin with that look in your eyes,
Donâ€™t want time to be the enemy,
So I put up a fight to stay a while,

All over again;
I know that change never feels the same,
All over again,
I know Iâ€™ll always feel this way,

All over again...

Letâ€™s do it all over again...

Iâ€™m not giving up easy,
Betcha Iâ€™ll find a way,
We can start all over,
We can start all over again,

And I know that this is the reason,
That life could never be the same,
Yeah...
We can start all over...
All over again,

We can start all over,
We can start all over again,

Letâ€™s do it all over again...
