Pointed To My Heart

I Killed the Prom Queen

You close your tired eyes
Sometimes you have to let go
I feel these feelings as they tremble awayYou have said your good byes to me
In my memory this is just another fond farewell
For you to die withIn another second I am, I am left breathless
In another second, I am left breathless
In another moment, I am left emotionless
In another moment, I am left emotionless
Come onThese words are like poetry
These words are like poetry
These words are, are like poetry
I look down as my wrists are slit
I am still bleedingI look as my, my wrists are still bleeding
I am so sorry, 'cause I am so sorry
'Cause I am so sorryWhy am I so sorry? 'Cause I am so sorry
'Cause I am so sorry, for what I have done
'Cause I am lost, 'cause I am lostAs this time fell apart
I won't forget 'cause I will not forget
'Cause I will not forget, 'cause I will not forget
[Incomprehensible]'Cause as love is lost, 'cause as love is lost
Well as love is lost, well as love, love is lost
Well as love is lost, yet again I will bleed
As love is lost, well again love is lost
As love is lost, yet again I'm okay
