

Familiar Feeling (Martin Buttrich Remix)

Moloko

Nothing can come close
 Nothing can come close
 Nothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come close
 To this familiar feeling
 Nothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come close
 To this familiar feeling
 Nothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingTo this familiar feeling
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come close
 To this familiar feeling
 Nothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come close
 To this familiar feeling
 Nothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come close
 To this familiar feeling
 Nothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come close
 To this familiar feeling
 Nothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come close
 To this familiar feeling
 Nothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come close
 To this familiar feeling
 Nothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come close
 To this familiar feeling
 Nothing can come close
 To this familiar feelingNothing can come closeI never doubted it
 What's for you will not pass you by
 I never questioned it
 It was decided before I asked whyIt's all there, ever was
 And it's all there, ever will be
 How could you have questioned us?
 It's yourself, you deceiveNothing can come close
 To this familiar feeling
 We say it all without
 Ever speakingNothing can come close

To this familiar feeling
We say it all without
Ever speakingNothing can come close
To this familiar feeling
To this familiar feeling
We say it all withoutHush now, no need to say the words
At first sight you perfectly heard
Love in all its entirety
Is no less than we deserveI saw your face, some place
I felt this feeling before
Is it deja vu?
Do I somehow know you?Nothing can come close
To this familiar feeling
To this familiar feeling
To this familiar feeling
We say it all without
Ever speakingNothing can come close
To this familiar feeling
We say it all without
Nothing can come closeNothing can come close
To this familiar feeling
