Black and White

The Artichokes

Verse
I feel your footsteps moving on the second floor
I feel your body and I know you know I want to feel some more
I fit the record for the loneliest of guys
I think youre lonely too I know you know I see it in your eyesI break all over you like waves break on the shore
I see you moving through your window and I want to feel some more
I fit the record for the loneliest of guys
I live a lonely life, I live a lonely lifeChorus
They say get over you, and I tried
But these days baby I see in black and whiteVerse
I fit the record for the loneliest of guys
I built my body out of locks and locked my ego deep inside
I built a house and built it big enough for two
I got these thoughts inside my head I think theyre sick enough for youI break all over you like waves break on the shore
I see you moving through your window and I want to feel some more
I fit the record for the loneliest of guys
I live a lonely life, I live a lonely lifeChorus x 2
