

Peace Of Soul

Bro'Sis

I will always stay myself, go my way live me dream 'till I have found you never let you go it's my wish, my goal to find my peace of soul! So many things, that I hide like a flower that grows inside comes out of my mouth, when I sing my song trust in my words and try to go on Yeah, yeah I felt the love it was destiny all inclusive harmony I knew right then it was ment to be Yeahhh I will always stay... Have to find your peace of soul to get you into your inner control you get it in your own way important is that in the end you can say All I had walked away from me I was to blind to see reality the pain that lingers on inside my heart will I know one day from me depart Bro'Sis help me sing goin' my wa not matter what they say Oooooooh struggle als I do it
'til the very last day
Yeahhhh I will always stay...(stern)RAP: Peace, the definition of tis slow jam what's my mother-fuckin' way 2 go i don't know watch the programm while I must and gotta trust and 2 keep my peace of mind and lemme bust and listen look up 2 a friend it gotta be life ist the bomb only if you let me be, I'll be myself and go my way so face reality and find my peace of soul I will always stay... And now I'm cool with you and now I'm cool with you... listen, I don't know let me know!
