

Maybe She'll Dream Of Me

The Foreign Exchange

(Phonte - singing)

Yeah,yeah,yeah,yeah,yeah,

Ooh,oh,oooh baby

oh,oh,oh,yeahWondering if

A face that wears a smile like yours

Has ever heard a no before

Such a beauty and a blessing

And if no one else is telling

I will I will

Wondering if

A man like me could swallow his pride

Would you stay with me and stand by my side

And let nothing come between it

Girl you know I really mean it

For real for real for realChorus

When she lays down at night

I wonder what she sees

When she thinks of paradise

Maybe she'll dream of me

So every night I pray

That when she goes to sleep

And she dreams of a love

Maybe she'll dream of me(Phonte - singing)

Just imagine the possibilities (talking about the possibilities)

If you would only let down your guard

I always say my love is easy babe

You don't have to make it so hard (so hard yeah)

I know you wont nothing else

But you can try and tell yourself its all a game (all a game)

I know you been lonely wishing

For a love that goes the distance

Call my name

Cause I am in love with youChorus(Phonte - rapping)

I'm thinking that you're outta my league

Walking round looking like something right outta my dreams

People saying me and you was like the finest cheerleader

Going with the dude that got picked last for the team

But desire is a miraculous thing

When your soul get ravenous

All you want is just a little happiness
And you would gladly grab it from the average things
No matter how it'll look or how absurd that it seems
So its pertinent to stay to when its workin, na mean?
Even if your perfect person is alerted by screams
And whispers and yells and wows and how are they together man I just can't believe
This is something that the old G's called composure
Keep me in mind
Baby you are my star and I know we aligned
Sweet candy for me and my dreaming eyes
And when I lay down at night maybe you'll be in mind
Know what I'm sayin?
