Right Where I Belong

Johnny Reid

I was born by the banks of a river
Back in seventy three.
Raised up in a steel town
Surrounded by fields of green.
The fires went out when the steel went south
And soon it was time to leave.
Got on a plane back in eighty eight
And landed on a maple leaf.
Years fly by right before my eyes
Loves all I see when I look behind
Times just a road I?m traveling on
Here I am, right where I belong.
Met a girl in ninety five in the town of l
We both fell in love on night
There upon a hill
Five years later I said

Baby will you merry me
She gave me her heart
She gave her soul
She blessed me with a family.
Years fly by right before my eyes
Loves all I see when I look behind
Times just a road I?m traveling on
Here I am, right where I belong.
Ohhhh yeahh
Years fly by right before my eyes
Loves all I see when I look behind
Times just a road I?m traveling on
Years fly by right before my eyes
Loves all I see when I look behind
Times just a road I?m traveling on
Here I am, I?m right where I belong.
