Cove

Kerosene

Heavy eyes, pretty tired
Lonely I walk the grey sky
Turn away at the gates
Slight of hand and loss of faith
What did you expect me to say?
Although I always knew I'd never make you stay
What did you expect me to say?
Although I always knew I'd never make you stayAh, ah, ah, ahOcean swept, rainy days
Cut the key hole from the door
Love letters in lower case
While the captain keeps me under
I lost the heart to keep yours safe
Forgive me once more for I'm yours until we leave shore
I lost the heart to keep yours safe
Forgive me once more for I'm yours until we leave shoreAh, ah, ah, ahHollow me out
My eyes don't wander as much as you doLet me know
Let the water hold
Me into places I can't go
Overdressed and overdosed
I heard the stories that you told
