Timely

Circlesquare

Thunder and lightning
Keep breaking our mirror

Magnets and spy-ware in sunlight
This moment, my friend
Could be fleeting

Then again
Cautionâ€™s always held us back some

Blame it on nature

But do you think youâ€™re still on Stable grounds to say
â€œWeekends mean nothingâ€•
Anyways?

When there are millions of uncharted beaches
For goodness sake
And we have so many movies
We wanna make

So if we fall out, get run out, or run on our own
And donâ€™t return
Remember babe
Thereâ€™s a whole world of bridges out there
That we could surely burn
Hey

Itâ€™s such a timely time
In such a timely time
X4

And in the age of bathtub chemistry
They took the lights off of the floor
And all the love out of the ecstasy
And now nothing is strong enough
But lasers mainlined straight into brain-receptors
