Don't Let It Happen

Eleni Mandell

I know, you're not ready
To find a girl and call her steady
Looking back you might say we were just friends
And I'll say it's too late to make amendsDon't let it happen, don't let it happen
You're gonna miss what you don't know
You'll wanna kiss
But you're letting me go, oh, ohHow come you don't see what I see?
How come you don't feel what I feel?
Someday we'll be too late and I'll point to the past
To make it perfectly plainDon't let it happen, don't let it happen
You're gonna miss what you don't know
You'll wanna kiss
But you're letting me go, oh, ohOur future is dangerous
Who knows where we'll be
I've already read the letter
You're gonna write to me, waaI guess, there's no reason to try
It can be foolish to explain what is better kept quiet
No words will convince you to see
I'm gonna fly too far for you to catch meDon't let it happen, don't let it happen
You're gonna miss what you don't know
You'll wanna kiss
But you're letting me go, ohDon't let it happen
Don't let it happen
Don't let it happen
