

Wake up to the Real World

Pretty Maids

You take a trip down memory lane
Back in the childhood days When everyday was an innocent game
And life a fairy tale You're a twenty first century girl
And hope is all you've got You place your bets on happy endings
You know you're dreaming
Just pretending you're not You hide away in colourfull dreams
From the dark of night Sick of man sick of extremes
And the world outside You face the day with false illusions
Made up dreams and blind confusion Step into it open up your eyes
Wake up to the real world
Sleeping beauty you still fantasize
Wake up to the real world What's it like in in the world where you are
In your secret place Do you feel love healin' your scars
Do you feel embraced 'cause there your mind is free to wander
Where no one's gonna steal your thunder Step into it open up your eyes
Wake up to the real world
Sleeping beauty you still fantasize
Wake up to the real world
Face the music don't you realize
You're living in the real world
Sleeping beauty out of your disguise
Wake up to the real world oh Ooh ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh ooh oh You're living in a strange reality no no
You only see what you wish to see aw Step into it open up your eyes
Wake up to the real world
Sleeping beauty you still fantasize
Wake up to the real world
Face the music don't you realize
You're living in the real world
Sleeping beauty out of your disguise Wake up to the real world
Wake up to the real world
Wake up to the real world
