

Circle & Line

Brad

Hail hail, the gang's all fear
Going through devotion, shibboleth share
Tall talk, stall and break down
To make room for elation, avatar clownDing dong, hitch has fled
So ring unbroken bell hymn, leave reason unread
Old young chasing that train
Slow fast action inside, soak soul rend rainGo, wander through the far sign
Please, please find the circle
And the long line, slide homeHail hail, the gang's all fear
Going through devotion, shibboleth share
Tall talk, stall and break down
To make room for elation, avatar clownGo, wander through the far sign
Please, please find the circle
And the long line, slide homeI'm going back again
To ring around rose fire
I'm going back again
To dig deep law and higherGo, wander through the far sign
Please, please find the circle
And the long line, slide homeGo, wander through the far sign
Please, please find the circle
And the long line, slide home
