The Modern March

Run Kid Run

I am too tired of running
Would you still take me though I keep falling
To hear you say, I have been waiting
And to know your love it is never endingI long to see you again
Holy Spirit, please come back inI could never walk alone
All this time, I never gave to you
You're all I have, you're all I know
And I am calling on you nowI gave you my life won't you take me
For I was nothing before you found me
I will use my voice to sing out
With all that I am, with all that I haveI long to see you again
Holy Spirit, please come back inI could never walk alone
All this time, I never gave to you
You're all I have, you're all I know
And I am calling on you nowHow many times will I deny you?
Still your love won't let me go
How many times will I deny you?
Still your love won't let me goI long to see you again
I long to see you againI could never walk alone
All this time, I never gave to you
You're all I have, you're all I know
And I am calling on you nowI could never walk alone
All this time, I never gave to you
You're all I have, you're all I know
And I am calling on you nowI'm calling on you now
I'm calling on you now
I'm calling on you now
