Katrina

Phatjak

Katrina knows where the dollys go
To the dark places in the gardenAnd Katrina feels with the edge of a knife
Through the fog that cuts her openAnd she dont cry, she only smiles
Keep on smiling you'll get bygone too far, the dolly's cry
Turn back
Why theres no hope for you
But katrina laughs, because 'trina knows
Where the dollys goAnd she dont cry, she only smiles
Keep on smiling you'll get by
