

Dragged Through Sand

A Telemetry

into honor's eyes
I seek the justice I most fear hear a devil's cry
the reason remains oh so clear to defend with no end

just to survive

at ropes end
I'm dragged through sand
ripping the skin
I'm dragged through sand

down another road
to find out I'm alone death lightens the load to late now the seeds have sown

to contend
with another bend
just to survive

at ropes end
I'm dragged through sand
ripping the skin
I'm dragged through sand

in collective void
I will seek relief

at ropes end
I'm dragged through sand
ripping the skin
I'm dragged through sand

at ropes end
I'm dragged through sand
ripping the skin
I'm dragged through sand
