

A Friend I Call Desire

Ultravox

Desire

Desire

Desire You live for love, I long for it

You give for love, I take from it

This friend of mine, desire

This lover's crime, desire

Emotion driving all the time

A burning need for things not mine Desire

Desire

Desire You reach for love, I walk from it

You fight for love, I run from it

My enemy, desire

Caressing me, desire

The torch I carried burnt my hand

I can't control what I can't stand Desire

Desire

Desire You live for love, I lie for it

You give for love, I shy from it And the pain, and the lust

And the want, and the hurt

And the lies, and the fear

And the urge, and the feel

And the touch, and it's all A friend I call desire You live for love, I lie for it

You live for love, I die for it And the pain, and the lies

And the touch, and it's all A friend I call desire
