

Lost In You

Sugarcult

Six days went by
Trying to forget her face
It was you and i
We were too young for these games
And all the pictures that I kept
And all the things I should have said
It was you and i
But mostly me
Lost in you
And I can't find myself again
Lost in you
And I can't find myself again
Six weeks went by
Still pretending that I'm fine
It was you and i
Holding back what's on our minds
And all the things I should have said
And all the letters left unsent
It was you and i

But mostly me
Lost in you
And I can't find myself again
Lost in you
And I can't find myself again
Six months went by
I almost forgot your face
Till they played that song tonight
The one we used to hate
Lost in you
And I can't find myself again
Lost in you
And I can't find myself again
Lost in you(I'm lost in you)
And I can't find myself again
Lost in you(I'm lost in you)
And I can't find myself again
Again
Again
