How to Dress Well

I said there's no shame in this love
There's no pain in this love
I've got the world to gain with this love
There's no pain in this love No pain, no pain, no pain, no pain A tender heart, so truly kind
He wants her love, he wants to try
Caress this child, destroy his violence
No more seduction no jealousy no abandon no lies No father no mother just sweet little life
You hold her hand, you know this sweet little life
(There can be) no world with a broken child
No consolation, please no more lies
