

Exit 353

Damien Jurado

And when
I was the line
You were a light
Shining like some planet
You call home Talking aloud
What's it about
The ending or beginning of a word That was with me all along
I let go, you held strong
Are we all not lost in song
Feeding back until we're found
I was a line
Here on rewind
Living out the voices in my mind Talking aloud
Distorted in sound
Are we are not stars here on the ground You were with me all along
I let go, and you held strong Are we all not lost in song
Feeding back until we're found And in the golden hours hue
The darkest of the few
Was with me all along And sewn into the sounds of joy
The forms of light collide In the walls of my eyes
I was alone there
I was alone then
I was alone there I was alone then
I was alone there
I was alone then
