

You Are The Answer

Point Of Grace

They line the wailing wall, the masses fill up St. Peter's Square
Confessions, emotions spill out of desperate prayer
I know they're not alone, they've come to face the penitence stone
I hear the voices, the souls in need of You, 'cause You are the answer and the meaning of life
To hearts in darkness, You're the source of the light
As we walk this human road, every question will find
You are the answer Across the playground yard, another future society
Living and learning the way it's supposed to be
The days of truth grow dim
Your hands reached out and [Incomprehensible] write them
The message of hope that can only be found in You, 'cause You are the answer and the meaning of life
To hearts in darkness, You're the source of the light
As we walk this human road, every question will find
You are the answer You shined Your light in me, when I had no way
Rescued my dying heart that I could not save
And not just for me but for the world today You are the answer and the meaning of life
To hearts in darkness, You're the source of the light
As we walk this human road, every question will find
You are the answer You are the answer and the meaning of life
To hearts in darkness, You're the light
As we walk this human road, every question will find
You are the answer You are the answer and the meaning of life
To hearts in darkness, You're the source of the light
As we walk this human road, every question will find
You are the answer You are the answer and the meaning of life
To hearts in darkness, You're the source of the light
As we walk this human road, every question will find
