

Dancing Girl

Julie Miller

Conscience drowned in the wishing well
With these fields of flowers that we can't sell
Have mercy, baby
Come here quick
Hurry before your daddy gets sickHey, hey, little dancing girl
I know where you're going
Can you tell me, baby, do your angels sleep tonight?
Ain't nobody in this world can see when the tears are showing
One trick, one hit for daddy
You better look pretty, little dancing girlTake you down a Bangkok street
For a TV set and food to eat
If you wanna know what the devil is like
Just take one look in here tonight
