Jeremy

Khan Edison

Sitting by an open door with rain dropping in my face then lightning strikes across the room
I fall in your embrace it was a lovely rendezvous better than anyone ever know A gentle face a fiery heart with nothing to conceal that's what it takes to hold me down a man with grand appeal oh while I draw you to my soul
I feel the fire of love taking control
Jeremy
when I think of you
the good times that we have the melody
sings out to me
my heart at your command Jeremy
oh baby, oh baby, oh baby oohh... you're the only one who can Silent nights are lonely nights wherever we're apart and every moment you're away I hide you in my heart
oh while I draw you to my soul

When I think of you
the good times that we have
sings out to me
Jeremy
oh baby, oh baby, oh baby oooh...

Jeremy you see that we are two of a kind we could stay together baby for all time we can live without each other but it wouldn't be the same 'cause I am you and you are me it's never gonna change
Jeremy
Jeremy
oh baby, oh baby, oh baby
oooh...
Jeremy
Jeremy oh baby. oh baby..
