Threshold

Hammerfall

There are clouds on the horizon
Shifting colours, heavy rain
High above the roaring thurder
Shooting bullets through your brainThere's something wicked left behind
A baleful sight, a coming
A sinister state of your mindsBehold the skies, the port of heaven
Take the stairway down to hell
The gate is open, live the curse
We set aside our dreams and visions
We are one, we will unite
At the Threshold of the universe
We will riseLate at night they heard the sirens
From a place so far away
Allied forces, mighty brethren
In a vesture of decayThey are legions of the night
Turning darkness into....
Turning the dark into lightBehold the skies, the port of heaven
Take the stairway down to hell
The gate is open, live the curse
We set aside our dreams and visions
We are one, we will unite
At the Threshold of the universe[Solo: stefan]Beshold the skies the port of heaven....
