Understand Me

Karina Pasian

Karina:
oh lately I've been feelin so alone
So crazy, sometimes I wonder how I'll go on
And as the time fades away so does the smile thats on my face
I get so nervous start to thinkin dont nobody ever understand me ya feel me?Trey Songz:
I feel you.
so talk to your mother, daddy (sometimes they just don't understand me)
well how bout your sisters, brothers? (you know sometimes they just don't get you)
Talk to your girl friends, boyfriends (sometimes they just don't understand me)
got the world on my shoulders but I'm doing the best I can I can (girl I understand)
Karina:How it feels to be the main attraction
(people pullin you left people pullin you right)
I'm being pulled in a million directions
(It's so hard standing here in the spotlight)
sometimes the safest place I know (sittin at the piano with the microphone)
Doin the thing I love away from everyoneTrey Songz:
I feel you.
so talk to your mother, daddy (sometimes they just don't understand me)
well how bout your sisters, brothers? (you know sometimes they just don't get you)
Talk to your girl friends, boyfriends (sometimes they just don't understand me)
got the world on my shoulders but I'm doing the best I can I can (girl I understand)I know it can seem like no one cares but don't pay them any mind
You a star so baby go on and shineKarina:
But what if they be hatin on me?
(just shine)
making fun of what I'm tryin to be (just shine)
What if they're to blind to see (shine!)
That I'm only tryin to be meTrey Songz:
I feel you.
so talk to your mother, daddy (sometimes they just don't understand me)
well how bout your sisters, brothers? (you know sometimes they just don't get you)
Talk to your girl friends, boyfriends (sometimes they just don't understand me)
got the world on my shoulders but I'm doing the best I can I can (girl I understand)
