Life Is A Garden

Greeley Estates

You feel their eyes upon you, you hear their words behind you
What do they know about you?
They'll tell you who you should be, they'll tell you what you should do
They'll never believe in youSomebody should have told you it never comes easy
And somebody should have told you that there's no guarantees
That you lose it all when you stop dreaming
There's no way to know if you run awayThis is your time to stand up, this is the time to fight for
All that you know and you believe
You owe it to yourself to find out what you're meant for
There's no way to know if you runSomebody should have told you it never comes easy
And somebody should have told you that there's no guarantees
That you lose it all when you stop dreaming
There's no way to know if you run away
There's no looking backThey tell us who to be while ignoring all our dreams
We'll throw it away, we'll throw it away
Why is it they can't see we're who we want to be We'll throw it away, we'll throw it awayWhy can't they see
That we'll never be who they want us to be
We'll never be, we have too many dreams
Too many dreamsWhy can't they see
That we'll never be who they want us to be
We'll never be, we have too many dreams
Too many dreams to just throw them awaySomebody should have told you it never comes easy
And somebody should have told you that there's no guarantees
That you lose it all when you stop dreaming
There's no way to know if you run awaySomebody should have told you it never comes easy
And somebody should have told you that there's no guarantees
That you lose it all when you stop dreaming
There's no way to know if you run away
There's no looking back, there's no looking back
