

Loved Again

Hard Ryde

I can't forget our sweet memories,
I don't want to renew our many ecstasies,
One thing that i long for is your only one kiss,
I miss your smiles and your tight embrace.

I can't attempt to run on your side,
Your heart teach you to be far and hide,
Making me so sorry and so desperate,
Tagging myself, "Man who have no good fate".

I found myself so depressed in my room,
Seems like God showered me the severe gloom,
I'm begging, replenish our empty days,
That's tho only thing we once never trace.

Let us do it together now and then,
Love came from our heart, may wins in the end,
So don't afraid to come with again,
Cause together we can, Yes, yes we can.
