Who's Gonna Find Me

The Coral

It's six in the morning
And there's no one else around
The mist, it is fallin'
As I look out on the townIt's playing on my mind
Wasting all my time awayIt's too close for tears
And it's too hard to forget
It's too close for tears
I think I thought I saidIt's playing on my mind
Wasting all my time away
Who's gonna find me?
Tell me where I can go?
Who's gonna find me, searching alone?The face in the mirror
It's a face I've never met
Until I forgive her
I'll remember to forgetIt's playing on my mind
Wasting all my time away
Who's gonna find me?
Tell me where I can go?
Who's gonna find me, searching alone?And the hours, they fill
Now I'm underneath the spell once againIt's 6 in the evening
And I'm sweeping up the day
The people repeat them
But I am here to stayIt's playing on my mind
Wasting all my time, away
Who's gonna find me?
Tell me where I can go?
Who's gonna find me, searching alone?It's playing on my mind
Wasting all my time away
