People to People

State Radio

The women in the valley forged her
Them go day to day
Don't let them raid me home and
My home and placeThese men they don't see beyond
So they war and war
They don't remember what they
What they, came here for andPeople to people are so unjust they
Carry yourself well so carry yourself well
People to people are so unjust they say
Carry yourself well so carry yourself wellThe women in the valley forged her
The once home of the brave
Don't let them raid me home and
My home and placeBut the men they can't see beyond
So they become what they hate
They don't see the moon has just
Yeah, the moon is just getting its legs andPeople to people are so unjust they
Carry yourself well so carry yourself well
People to people are so unjust they say
Carry yourself well so carry yourself wellCarry yourself wellAnd you don't even close the barn door
After the horses have scattered
And no one knows anymore
Where all the souls have gatheredThough they will keep an eye on what you do
And when the people have spoken
You won't cry mercy on, mercy on you
'Cause we will, 'cause we will be alive just broken sayPeople to people are so unjust they say
Carry yourself well so carry yourself well
People to people are so unjust they say
Carry yourself well so carry yourself wellPeople to people are, people to people are People to people are, people to people are
