Soft As A Dove

Yes

Soft as a dove
Touching the hand that lays next to me
Innocent light
Leading us through a moment in time
Then you came home
I let you cry like a father should do
Innocent lights
Leading us to a moment in time
Soft as a dove
Touching the hand that lays next to me

Innocent light
Leading us through this moment in time
Thoughts run away
You're overcome by a flood of believing
Just like a dove you're flying away
Everything beautiful coming your way
Everything beautiful coming your way
Everything beautiful coming your way
