

Sunshine

Kenny Rogers

Sunshine, you may find my window
But you won't find me
Sunshine, I've got my friend of darkness here
Tonight to hide me Sunshine, as far as I'm concerned
I'm where I want to be
Sunshine, as far as you're concerned
Don't be concerned for me 'Cause she doesn't love me anymore
She doesn't want me, Lord
She doesn't need me anymore
She grew tired of chasing rainbows But I loved her true
And God, You know I tried
And I guess she was right 'cause I'm at the end
I found the part but there's no golden sun Sunshine, can't you see I'm not alone?
Don't bother me
Sunshine, pick up your dawn
Move on down the street So sunshine, as far as I'm concerned
I'm where I want to be
Sunshine, as far as you're concerned
Don't be concerned for me
