

Desert Nights

Silverstein

Iâ€™m running back to you,
keep running back to you.

This is where I lay,
Iâ€™ve been drunk for seven days.
I couldnâ€™t tell the truth,
So I made up
Alibis to hide my dishonest life.

Wait, thereâ€™s something I canâ€™t explain
So Iâ€™m giving in again.
All these desert nights
They keep me running back to you.

The fever takes ahold
I never thought Iâ€™d miss the cold.
This is how I know
That Iâ€™m still able
To feel my own insides,
Breathe in and think twice.

Wait, thereâ€™s something I canâ€™t explain
So Iâ€™m giving in again.
All these desert nights
They keep me running back to you.

This isnâ€™t my first mistake
There are things that I canâ€™t undo.
But from this mess I'm in
Iâ€™m always running back to you.

I canâ€™t stay here buried.
I canâ€™t go on Living with these
Alibis to hide my dishonest life.
Please forgive me,
Thereâ€™s no where else to hide.

Wait, thereâ€™s something I canâ€™t explain
So Iâ€™m giving in again.

All these desert nights
They keep me running back to you.

Wait, there's something I can't explain
So I'm giving in again.
All these desert nights
They keep me running back to you.

This isn't my first mistake
There are things that I can't undo.
And from this mess I'm in
I'm running back to you.
