

Words of Silence

Venturia

Shine like the star on your way
Be the one you've always dreamed about
It lays here deep inside me
It's so deep and it could take my heart away

Raise the curtain of your soul
Mine has always been recalled in my dreams
We've got to make some choices
The only way is far from home
Cos' nothing takes the past away...
And we just need it as much as we hate it
Oh I wish.....I wish I could forget you

I wish I could break it down
And wish I could regret it
Cos' I hate to see me through your eyes
But I would die without this addiction
We're calling out for wisdom
And praying for the time we'll survive
Cos' we love and we die

Tell me why should we cry?
Let your anger rise.... I will stand in your way
Tell me why do we speak with the words of silence?

Help me to keep me sane
Help me to make me strong enough
I pray while night turns into day
Where's the power that I miss?
Call my name and save me

In this life,I'm drifting
Through the night,I can hear this voice again
Let me cry with the words of silence
Just let me hide the things I will fight one day
Let me be weak like the child who made me wise

Tell me why should we cry?
Let your anger rise.... I will stand in your way

Tell me why do we speak with the words of silence?

Tell me why should we cry?
Let me dream,let me hear your words of silence
You can fly,so break this spell and fly away...
