Nerves

Silkworm

No more simple tunes
No more easy poon
It takes so many millions to get laidGoddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friend
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friendYeah, so many fools
It's time to lose the tools
I said, "Give 'em hell boys on the Nile"Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friend
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friendGoddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friend
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friendI'm wading through the herds
[Incomprehensible] my dying words
Yeah, time at the mission thanking myselfGoddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friends
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friendsGoddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friends
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And fare you well my friends
