Nerves

Silkworm

No more simple tunes

No more easy poon

It takes so many millions to get laidGoddamn the circumstance that brought me here

And goddamn you my friend

Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here

And goddamn you my friendYeah, so many fools

It's time to lose the tools

I said, "Give 'em hell boys on the Nile" Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here

And goddamn you my friend

Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here

And goddamn you my friendGoddamn the circumstance that brought me here

And goddamn you my friend

Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here

And goddamn you my friendI'm wading through the herds

[Incomprehensible] my dying words

Yeah, time at the mission thanking myselfGoddamn the circumstance that brought me here

And goddamn you my friends

Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here

And goddamn you my friendsGoddamn the circumstance that brought me here

And goddamn you my friends

Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here

And fare you well my friends
