Goodbye

WVNDER

I think I've lost my final fight
All of my hope is out of sight
I think I'll take another drive
And maybe choose to end my lifeI've dug the hole too deep to climb
Ran out of room to make things right
For once I'm making up my mind
I'm gonna leave this world tonight(Hooo, hooo) x2
Now as I watch the stars align
I see my hole, I past me by Nostalgic sights and sounds were mine
We have what I will leave behindNo turning back this time
Close your eyes, close your eyes
I'm had (missing lyrics)
Take a breath and take abide
(Take a breath and take abide)
Of the edge and to the sky
One last clasp before I die
And now our souls were intertwined
I've left you here to wonder why
Just (missing lyrics) still collide
My second thoughts all scream survive
